

WSFM'S JONESY & AMANDA'S YUM CHA WORLD RECORD ATTEMPT TO CELEBRATE SYDNEY LUNAR FESTIVAL

Wednesday, January 30th 2019 – WSFM's Jonesy & Amanda are set to make this year's Sydney Lunar Festival celebrations one to remember as they attempt to claim the Guinness World Records™ title for the Largest Dim Sum (Yum Cha) Meal.

To celebrate the Year of the Pig, Jonesy & Amanda are teaming with the City of Sydney and Channel 7's My Kitchen Rules and hundreds of WSFM listeners to attempt to break the record on Tuesday, February 5 at Darling Harbour.

Of the Guinness World Records™ attempt Amanda Keller said: "This is going to be one of the tastiest challenges we've ever done. I can't wait to tuck into some delicious yum cha with hundreds of our listeners to celebrate the Sydney Lunar Festival."

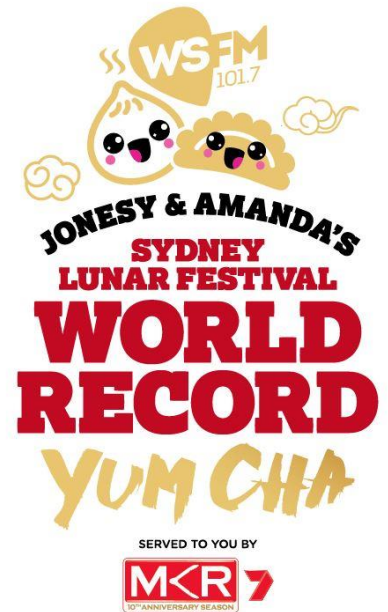

"Growing up, I was always told 'there was no such thing as a free lunch' and what better way to prove those naysayers wrong than with a world record free lunch. The more the merrier!" Brendan 'Jonesy' Jones added.

"Sydney is widely regarded for its array of high quality, diverse cuisines from across Asia, and dumplings are always a favourite," said Lord Mayor Clover Moore.

"This Guinness World Records attempt is a great way for people to join in the fun of our Lunar New Year celebrations – I look forward to seeing the results!"

To be a part of the fun, simply go to <http://www.wsfm.com.au> to register your details below and explain why you want to help Jonesy & Amanda break the Guinness World Record title – and you can invite your family and friends to join in too.

Sydney Lunar Festival runs from 1 to 10 February. For more details on the program and to plan your festival experience go to sydneylunarfestival.com
